29	30	31	About this Month: The first 3 days of next week, we will be reading and enjoying Dr. Seuss Books in recognition of his birthday! The rest of the month we will be exploring and expanding our knowledge of the weather and different modes of transportation. Hopefully warmer weather is on the way but with that comes mud and a messy playground. Please keep in mind, we do our best to steer the children away from excessive mud but play clothes are best for our busy days here. We are looking forward to our literacy event on Thursday the 12 th . We would love to have you join us!
