We will also be reading and learning about spring and hopefully will be able to get outside for some warm fresh air. We are sending home some red and white paper strips for you to write down books you have read, so please be sure to turn these in, because we will be adding them to our cat in the hat and we will watch his hat grow as we add these strips to it. Also, we would like for you to be sure and turn your, at home project papers, in for making the Valentine containers for Feb. We only got one sent in and had a lot of cute boxes made.
